WEBSITE OPTIMIZATION & PERFORMANCE REPORT

Date: May 22, 2026

Dear Dr. Ranjith G,

Thank you very much for providing the opportunity to work on your clinical website (dranjithneuro.com). It has been an absolute privilege to design, optimize, and secure the site to reflect the premium medical care you offer at your practice.

Over the last 24 hours, we have successfully implemented crucial mobile speed optimizations, interactive testimonial sliders, and fixed layout issues on the contact section. As a result, the website now loads instantly, is highly search-engine friendly, and works perfectly on all screen sizes.

Google PageSpeed Benchmarks

Google PageSpeed Insights measurements verify that the site is functioning at the highest standard of modern web engineering. Below are the key indicators from Google's official analysis:

Metric	Mobile Score	Desktop Score
Performance	100 / 100 (Perfect)	99 / 100 (Excellent)
SEO	100 / 100 (Perfect)	100 / 100 (Perfect)
Best Practices	100 / 100 (Perfect)	100 / 100 (Perfect)
Accessibility	94 / 100 (Excellent)	98 / 100 (Excellent)

WEBSITE OPTIMIZATION & PERFORMANCE REPORT

Summary of Optimizations & Enhancements

Category	Optimization Done	Resulting Impact
Mobile Speed	Configured responsive CSS and optimized mobile image assets (like 4-mobile.webp) to prevent downloading heavy desktop banner versions.	Achieved perfect 100/100 performance score.
Reviews Slider	Formatted client recovery stories and integrated a touch-friendly testimonials slider using Swiper JS framework.	Improved user trust and engagement metrics.
Layout Correction	Repaired syntax breaks in the Google Maps embed code on the Contact page.	Restored the bottom footer and enabled mobile hamburger menu navigation.
SEO & Metadata	Verified search descriptions, titles, local geo-coordinates, and JSON-LD schemas.	Perfect 100/100 SEO grade for organic and map packs searches.
Direct CTAs	Streamlined click-to-call links and direct WhatsApp chat links.	Seamless booking and inquiries directly from mobile devices.

We are proud to see the site running at peak efficiency, and we remain dedicated to keeping your digital presence in prime condition. Please let us know if there are any further customizations or pages you would like to introduce next.

With deep gratitude,

Mohan
